RETIRE EARLY AND TRAVEL

Keith & Tina Paul

About

We were both born with wanderlust and began traveling together when we're 18. Then came executive level careers, responsibilities and kids so we did not have much time, but we traveled none-the-less. We dreamed of a moment when life would be a constant adventure. We made that dream come true by retiring early. Now we are avid, retired travelers that live abroad. Our goal is to immerse ourselves in different cultures and try new things. Besides blogging, our work's featured in Pasadena Now and Cuenca Expats Magazine in which we write a monthly feature titled "Things to Do." In 2017, we were featured on the TV show House Hunters International. Because we retired early, it affords us to do what we love most, TRAVEL.

Our Blog & Audience

We are a travel blog with an emphasis on how to retire early and/or live abroad enabling our readers to travel more. We inspire people to live their dreams now. Our website caters to an affluent and engaged audience of individuals who want to make the most of their time by traveling and spending money where it's needed to make the experience more enjoyable.
